THE next time Judge WALL writes eerd" he ought to use less red ink and more blue pencil.

Why don't you say Governor Beck-Ham in place of Mr. Beckham?" said one Frankfort lady to another. "Because I don't want to remind him that he's occupying a stolen office every time I speak to him," was the lightning-like retort.

THOSE who have followed the "con Those who have followed the "conspiney" trials at Georgetown and Frankfort may have noticed that "Judge" Cantella Lamost uniformly overmles every objection urged by the defense, while he sustains every objection urged by the notorious Tox Campella. Talk about a man getting a fair trial before such a partisan as Jun Cantella L. C. Blatterman, Recorder. JIM CANTRILL!

THE LEDGER has taken frequent occasion to compliment Judge Wall, and has even gone so far as to say that the noble fight he made in 1886 entitled him to another Congressional nomination by his party when there is a chance to win. For this and other reasons it was unkind in the Judge to say that THE LEDGER man was a Millionaire—or a pauper.

Iss'r it peculiar that whenever a needy mountaineer loses a job, or a leg, he immediately proceeds to Cincinnati, and finds one of the Gorbat brothers' "Fory" CAMPELL just happens along and listens to his "confession," and the next thing we hear of him he is a "star witness" for the prosecution. Shenandoh, Pa., Sept. 24.—An air of expectancy was noticeable among the people here Sunday and, although it would be difficult to find a more peaceful community, the opinion is generally expressed that Monday will sense of Friday. The superintendents of all the mines in the vicinity of this city and Shamokin Sunday reiterated their intention of resuming operations. The strikers, however, cleare they will not succeed, at least in the Shenandoah mines.

It was not until afternoon that there was any noticeable activity on the streets. In the morning churches of all denominations were crowded and the sermons were invariably the subject of the mine troubles.
